

THE GREAT WAR. NEWCHWANG OBJECTIVE.

Indications Are that Town is Goal of Japanese.

Gen. Kuroki Advancing All
Along the Line.

Russian Forces Everywhere
Prepare to Resist.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
NEWCHWANG, July 8, Afternoon.—
(By Asiatic Cable. Delayed in Transmission.) The Russian forces are everywhere preparing actively to meet the next Japanese advance. Heavy firing was heard again last night from the direction of Kailashou, and it is reported that serious fighting has occurred.

KUROKI'S ADVANCE GENERAL.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, July 8, 1:30 p.
m.—A special dispatch from Newchwang, dated yesterday, says Gen.
Kuroki is advancing all along the line
and adds that Japanese officers are organizing Chinese bandit bands
through the Liao Valley for an attack on Mukden.

LOCATIONS OF JAPANESE.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
TIENTSIN, July 8.—It has been learned here from a Russian source
that the locations of some of the Japanese troops are as follows: The Second and Twelfth Divisions are marching from Feng Wang Cheng in the direction of Liao Yang and Salmatze.
A division of the guards is near the Yalu and the Tenth Division is near Takuhan; both these divisions are marching in the direction of Hailuocheng,
and on their left and right flank are reserves from the Yalu. Gen. Oku's
army is composed of three divisions,
and with the Sixth Division and an unnamed division, is marching toward Port Arthur.

KAICHOW CRUCIAL FEATURE.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, July 8.—Unusually long official telegram were received tonight, but while supplementing the previous advice to the Associated Press from the front, they do not bring the military situation beyond July 5. Therefore, the fight of July 5 reported in a dispatch from Ta Tche Kiao, which brought the Japanese within five miles of Kailashou,
is the recent news of the day.

The approach of the Japanese to Kaichow is taken as a crucial feature of the situation. This leaves an opportunity for a vigorous defense of Kaichow, bringing south for this purpose Gen. Kouroupatkin who is still at Ta Tche Kiao, or for the Russians
to evacuate Kaichow without serious resistance, probably concentrating at Ta Tche Kiao, at which is the end of the branch railroad connecting Newchwang with the main line and apparently the last place where a stand
could be made to prevent the Japanese
from pushing across the peninsula,
seizing Newchwang and its port and establishing a new base on the west coast of the peninsula.

OUTPOSTS FAR NORTH.
The fact that the Japanese outposts
are gradually pushing out along the whole front, even to the north of Liao Yang, as pointed out in the Associated Press dispatches, makes fighting a possibility almost anywhere
along the railroad. The skirmishes around Kaichow and Senchen enumerated in Gen. Kouroupatkin's dispatch to the czar are regarded as of particular importance except for the fact that Siadama, one of the points
mentioned, is only eight miles from Kaichow. The skirmishes near Siad-ma, together with the other skirmishes, indicate preparations for an advance on Kaichow.

Lieut. Gen. Sakharoff's report
mainly traverses the ground covered in Gen. Kouroupatkin's dispatch, but with greater detail. This report does not mention any important movement
save the presence of a detachment at Diao Dia Hill, twenty-five miles southwest of Kaichow.

STILL PUZZLING RUSSIANS.
With the return of three days of fine weather, drying the roads at the theater of war, the military authorities here are once more inclined to believe in the probability of heavy fighting and even in the possibility of a general engagement. The Japanese columns appear again to be pushing forward at all points, but the strategic plan of the Japanese, as well
as the location of their main forces
and the place where the main attack
will be struck, whether at Kaichow, Hailuocheng, Liao Yang or even at Mukden, are still puzzling Russian authorities.

cupied Kaiping yesterday, Friday.

GUNS REPORTED TAKEN.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
LONDON, July 8.—The Tokyo correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, under date of July 8, says that the Japanese captured over ten guns and fifty prisoners near Kaichow. No other dispatches in confirmation of the foregoing have been received.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES.
When Acting Secretary of State
Loomis returned from his mission to London he had been to consult the officers of the Kaiser Wilhelm II. regarding the disappearance of his imperial crown jewels. The Japanese
at his desk at the State Department,
the expected report on the same subject
of Mr. Loomis, Kent Loomis's traveling companion.

Dr. Elias C. Swallow, the Prohibition candidate for President, will receive official notification of his nomination in Indianapolis, Friday evening, July 22. The meeting will take place in Tomlinson Hall, where Dr. Swallow was nominated by the Progressive barrage of Lincoln, Neb., will deliver the notification address.

William Clark Crittenden, a member of the senior class of the College
of Letters of the University of California, has been selected as the first Rhodes scholar at Oxford from this State.

Johnny Reiff, the jockey, who was suspended two years ago by the stewards of the French Jockey Club, is commenting in the Orient, without an unnecessary entanglement in oriental
and European affairs, and without arbitrary, unlimited, irresponsible and exclusive jurisdiction anywhere within our jurisdiction. We oppose fervently, as did George Washington himself, an unlimited, irresponsible and exclusive jurisdiction anywhere within our jurisdiction.

been made.

W. H. Ellis says that F. Kent
Loomis had not been drinking to excess
and that when he last saw him he was on the deck of the Kaiser Wilhelm II. about 11 o'clock and that there was nothing in his appearance
to indicate that he was not in full control of his faculties.

ness patrols retired to the southwest.
We lost only horses and wounded.
"According to Chinese accounts
troops were landed at Datchuangkhe,
thirty-seven miles southwest of Takuhan.

"A Cosack patrol, July 4, pushed forward to Palamatze, where considerable forces of the enemy were discovered."

Lieut. Gen. Sakharoff, in a long report to the General Staff, dated July 6,
cover much the same ground as the report from Gen. Kouroupatkin to the czar under date of July 5.

Gen. Sakharoff gives details of a number of other minor engagements
in which the Russians drove back the Japanese outposts and captured patrols but he mentions nothing in the nature of a considerable engagement
or of serious losses on either side.

BALTIC SQUADRON'S ACTIVITY.
A division of the Baltic squadron will sail from Cronstadt, July 28, under sealed orders. Complete mystery enshrouds its destination. It is understood that the division will include the armored cruiser Admiral Nakh-moff, the battleship Oslabla, the protected cruiser Aurora and the battleship Alexander III, and possibly the battleship Navarin and the transport Kamchatka. Great stacks of charts were being examined yesterday by the division of the Baltic squadron.

The general naval situation is considered much improved. There is elation everywhere over the latest successful results. The Admiralty has promised annihilation at the failure of the Japanese torpedo flotilla to drive
home its attack on the Vladivostok
squadron under the favorable circumstances related in the dispatches received from Vladivostok yesterday.

MOUNT SEVEN HUNDRED GUNS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
TIENTSIN, July 8.—Three French-
men who arrived at Taku yesterday
from Port Arthur, having come over
on a Chinese junk, report that 30,000
soldiers and 10,000 marines composed
the garrison of the Russian stronghold, and that the Russians have mounted 700 guns on the heights
north of Port Arthur.

KUROKI CONFIDENTIAL.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)
LIAO YANG, July 7.—Gen. Kuroki, talking to a Russian officer who had been taken prisoner, said the Japanese intend to take possession of all Southern Manchuria, establishing themselves at Port Arthur and Yinkow (the port of Newchwang) which it is the purpose to fortify, garrison
with large bodies of troops and supply it with long-range artillery.

The Russians then recapture these places, Gen. Kuroki declared, it will be at the cost of an enormous amount of money and 800,000 fresh troops
from Europe.

RUSSIAN RUSSIAN VICTORY.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, July 8, 1:32 p.
m.—It is reported in a special dispatch from Liao Yang under yesterday's date that a persistent rumor is current there to the effect that a naval engagement has occurred at Port Arthur in which twenty-one Japanese warships participated, resulting in a Russian victory. A similar report was current at Liao Yang July 5, the location of the engagement then being given as northward of Gensan, Korea.

THE ESPERIE TURNED BACK.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
TIENTSIN, July 8.—A telegram received from Chinwangtao says the British gunboat Espérie reached there
on her return from Newchwang July 6. It was originally intended to prevent the Espérie from leaving Chinwangtao for Newchwang, but the message to this end was received too late. The Russians did not allow her to enter the harbor of Newchwang.
This evidently was prearranged, for
the British Consul at Newchwang, Broos, boarded the gunboat outside
the harbor and was in communication with her officers.

DEMOCRATS' PLATFORM AS IT IS ADOPTED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

ST. LOUIS, July 8.—The platform
reads:
The Democratic party of the United States, in national convention assembled, declares its devotion to the essential principles of the Democratic faith, which brings us together in party communion. Under them, local self-government and national unity
shall be maintained, and the people shall be enabled to exercise their rights of free and independent election to their own representatives
in the government.

The endeavor of the Secretary of War, in pledging the government's industrial resources to the Philippine islands to make the United States
a partner in the development of the Philippines, is a policy which was only temporarily held up by the opposition of the Democratic Senators in the last session, will, if successful, lead
to entanglements from which it will be difficult to escape.

TARIFF.
The Democratic party has been, and will continue to be the consistent opponent of that class of tariff legislation by which certain interests have been permitted, through Congressional favor, to draw "bounty" from the American people. This monstrous perversion of those equal opportunities which our political institutions
are established to secure safety and prosperity to all, is a policy which has been in effect for many years, and which has been the cause of the industrial depression which has been the result of the tariff system.

Unholy Alliance of Hill and Bryan Gives Latter Control of the Party's Platform

ST. LOUIS.

heads and the vast amphitheater, galleries, balconies, pit and all broke into one chaotic riot of color. Then, for a full half an hour, that mighty mass of humanity was again like a thing gone mad. It is said that the delegates were distributed to be used for Parker at the psychological moment, but the Missourians, by the cleverest kind of a coup d'état, turned it to their own benefit.

TALKING AGAINST TIME.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES: CONVENTION HALL, ST. LOUIS, July 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As the gray dawn of the morning approaches, the gabfest is still in progress and the mob in full control. At this hour, the opposition to Parker is making a desperate effort against time and fate to win. There is no sign of a let-up to the talk and the noise, and this report comes in the midst of hilarity.

BRYAN'S THREAT SCARES HILL.

DAVE SHOWS HE'S A PEANUT POLITICIAN AFTER ALL.

New Yorker Surrenders His Great Advantage in the Platform Committee and Denies the Men Who Had Fought All Night Against Bryanism and for Honesty.

BY E. S. LITTLE.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES: ST. LOUIS, July 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When gray dawn was breaking over this sweating city this morning, David Bennett Hill, the abolitionist of the Resolutions Committee of this convention, the man who, in subcommittee, put a gold plank into the platform, got "cold feet" and laid down before William Jennings Bryan.

Hill had returned to his own. When a peanut politician attempts to play statesman, any bluff can drive him back to his place, and Bryan drove Hill back to his place, back to his peanuts, and his little deals, back where he belongs—in that class of politicians who will make any sacrifice of principle to placate the opposition.

In the great fight of yesterday and last night, when the conservative element of the Democratic party was struggling for complete control, when it had no far got control as to actually incorporate a gold plank into its platform, there was need of a strong man for its leader, to insist upon holding the advantage gained for common sense and national honesty, and a man who would yield to no threats such as Bryan is capable of making. Hill is not that sort of a man. There were men in that committee last night who, through the whole of that hot, awful night, fought like tigers for honesty, but Hill deserted them when Bryan shook in his face the awful skeleton of the income tax, and told him that if he insisted upon gold going into the platform the Bryan end of the party would go in. Then Hill wretchedly gave in. He took his gold plank out of the platform and threw it into the waste basket, Bryan smiled, and consented not to press his silver plank—he didn't have votes enough to have put it in—and there was harmony, which in this case spells truckling and peace at any price.

HILL WAS FRIGHTENED. The result is that, instead of the platform we had last night, carrying the straight, honest announcement that gold is the standard of our currency, the Democratic party has adopted a platform that contains no words about currency, money or finance that are worth the paper they are written on. It is a platform devised out of Hill's own fright when he foolishly thought that Bryan would stampede the convention for the purpose of standing by national sanity.

Had Senator Daniel of Virginia been placed in charge of that platform in place of Hill, there would have been a different outcome, for Daniel was obliged, so indignant was he at Bryan's impudent claims, to leave his chair as presiding officer of the committee at a half after 6 o'clock this morning and denounce Bryan. Although the committee meeting was held behind closed doors, the voice of this indignant Virginia Senator could be heard as he called into Bryan's impudence.

DANIEL'S BLAST. Calling another member of the committee to the chair, Senator Daniel said: "The silver issue was known in Virginia before Bryan was born. By what right, by under what pretense of propriety, does this man come here to instruct us upon an issue that has led us to defeat twice? This man whom the Democratic party has twice highly honored has seen fit to pick down in every candidate proposed for the office to which he twice unsuccessfully aspired. But it seems he has yet to find one in which he can find fault of gold."

THEY'RE NOT SATISFIED. In St. Louis tonight it was said that Democrats are satisfied with the platform and that all factions of the party will support it, but talks with delegates who tonight thronged every hotel corridor would convince any sane man that they are nowhere near satisfied with the platform document that was drawn up by the committee today, under Bryan's threats. Of course, Bryan got no affirmative thing into the platform, but he kept all effective affirmative things out, under the threat that if those things were not left out, he would put in every heresy that was in the Kansas City platform of four years ago, and then make some additions to that.

CANT TRUST PARKER.

Conservative Democrats tonight have just one hope to express, particularly with reference to the money question, and that is that, inasmuch as the platform now contains nothing on the money question, Judge Parker, in his letter of acceptance to the Resolutions Committee, will write into the Democratic creed of this year a money plank that will be satisfactory to the anti-Bryan wing of the party. Inquiry among delegates who know Judge Parker failed to reveal any fixed belief that he possesses sufficient courage to take this strong step, although Senator Bacon of Georgia said that he fully believes that when Judge Parker has spoken on the money question, no man can fail to understand just what his views are upon that point. Some bystanders suggested that it would be good to get positive views from Judge Parker on anything.

MIGHT HAVE GONE FURTHER.

It should be kept in mind that Bryan's negative victory in the Resolutions Committee was far from what he desired. The platform does not please Bryan at all, although he signed the report on it with all other members of the Resolutions Committee, and afterward gave out an interview in which he said he was perfectly satisfied with it, although it does not contain all he wanted and Democrats would unite upon it. Bryan craftily refrained from showing his strength in the Resolutions Committee. Had he controlled that committee he would have put into the platform a reaffirmation of the Kansas City platform in full. He did not make any such suggestion, making any such motion as that. He knew that a majority of the committee was against him, and but for Hill's insane desire for peace at any price, Bryan would have been outvoted and beaten at every turn in the room.

David Bennett Hill himself selected the members of the Resolutions Committee with especial reference to having a good majority of them in favor of the subject of money, and then he did not have sufficient courage to trust his own men to stand by him.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE SITUATION.

DEMOCRATS NOT SATISFIED WITH PARKER'S STAND.

Hill Has Sidelined Cleveland, but Has Lost the Election to His Tactics—Theodore Roosevelt's Strength With the People is Made All the More Manifest.

BY E. S. LITTLE.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES: ST. LOUIS, July 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two weeks ago, when the Republican National Convention was being held in Chicago, there was considerable inquiry there among the delegates as to whether the Democrats would have a good chance of winning this election. The inquiries were made honestly by honest Republicans, who, considering all things, were led to make inquiries as to the situation. They were uncertain as to Roosevelt's strength in the Middle West and in the East, and they were especially solicitous about his strength in New York State. When this Democratic National Convention was about to open the onlookers of some political experience thought they detected signs of a united Democracy and wondered that, inasmuch as the two great political parties are about evenly balanced, there would be a chance for a united, "sane" Democracy to be triumphant this year. That was their judgment before the delegates commenced to arrive here in great numbers.

SOME DEDUCTIONS.

With this plain statement of feeling at both conventions, let us get down to some deductions. At the Chicago convention there was not one discordant note. There was no suggestion from the time that convention commenced to assemble to the time that the last delegate had left Chicago of any man but Roosevelt for the Presidential nomination, and Fairbanks was chosen for the second place on the ticket with practically as great unanimity. There was no quarrelling about the platform. Everything went off as business men would gather and transact some important business on hand. There was no suggestion anywhere, and no thought, that any Republicans, from Maine to California, would fail to vote for Roosevelt. The only inquiry made was to test the strength of our friends the Democrats.

DISASTROUS DEMOCRATS. At St. Louis, no harmonious, unanimous thing has been done from the day the delegates began to get here till today, and no harmonious thing will be done. Go into the corridors of the St. Louis hotels, and you will find Democrats standing in the center of crowds of other Democrats proclaiming that "I am a Democrat, but damn me if I will vote for that man Parker. My vote will go for Theodore Roosevelt."

That little speech has been made several hundred times in the last few days, and it is applauded every time. There are some Illinois Republicans here and a good many Indiana Republicans. Those two States will be pivotal States in the coming election, and the Democrats must get one or both of them to win, no matter who is nominated for Vice-President on the Democratic ticket, so all authorities agree that it is impossible to get either Illinois or Indiana into the Democratic column this year.

T. TAGGART'S INFLUENCE. If Tom Taggart of Indiana is made chairman of the Democratic National Committee, as he wants to be, his appointment will hurt the Democratic party in Indiana. T. Taggart is mighty popular with a certain brand of Indiana Democrats, but he is popular with no independents in that State and with no Republicans. His appointment, it is believed, would actually drive the conservative Democrats away from the ticket, and that means something in Indiana, where a large majority of the entire population of the State is Republican, and the Democrats are also conservative, thoughtful people. But whether Tom Taggart or anybody else gets into the game from Indiana, the fact remains that Roosevelt personally is strong there; that it is today a Republican State, having a Republican Legislature, two Republican Senators at Washington, a Republican Governor, and with nearly all of its members of the national house Republicans. This, with Fairbanks' strong and growing following in that State, makes it almost as solidly Republican as Iowa or Maine.

Democrats assembled in St. Louis say they believe that with the vote of the city of Chicago, they can beat Roosevelt in that State, particularly as it is reported that he helped to defeat Yates' re-nomination for Governor. President Roosevelt himself has denied that he had anything to do with the State convention at Springfield, but even if he had helped to defeat Yates for the re-nomination, he would have done a really thing for the State ticket in Illinois.

Denon, who was finally nominated for Governor, is already showing most amazing strength in his canvass, and is not only certain to be elected himself, but he will be extremely strong; that is, his strength will be reflected in the national ticket. Fairbanks is strong in Illinois, and there is "Uncle Joe" Cannon to add still greater strength there.

If the Democratic party were tonight to nominate the strongest man in the State of Illinois for President, even he could not carry Illinois against the tremendous Republican strength that has developed there in the last two weeks.

KEEP UP THE STRUGGLE.

Looking at it conservatively, as this convention seems to close and the great American campaign of 1912 starts, it may be set down that, with the exception of 1900, when McKinley and Roosevelt had an absolute walkover, the Republican party has not entered into a national struggle better equipped for victory on the very many occasions since the day it was founded, fifty years ago last Wednesday.

THE VICE-PRESIDENCY.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M. ST. LOUIS, July 1.—Great uncertainty still exists concerning the Vice-President. The same candidates who have heretofore been mentioned are still mentioned, and some are being dropped with a great deal of earnestness. No one man has been yet singled out by the leaders and large delegations to be supported for the second place. There seems to be a desire to select a man from Illinois, Indiana, or Ohio, if possible.

The western men have secured quite a large number of delegations to support former Senator George Turner of Washington.

FOOLS MADE PARKER LAUGH.

The Esopus Mystery Preserves His "Discreet Silence" but His Work Tickles Him.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES: ESOPUS (N. Y.), July 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judge Parker spent the day as calm and as cool as though nothing of unusual interest were occurring. The proceedings of the Democratic National Convention were reported at his home by telephone from the telegraph office at Kingston, and each bulletin, if it was interesting, was read to him by his secretary.

With the same determination that he has manifested from the first, the judge is refusing to discuss politics, and that he will stick to this determination until after he is officially notified of his nomination there is no doubt. When asked a very pointed question, he hesitated for a moment, then laughed outright.

The report that his political advisers are anxious to have the notification set for a date ahead of the notification to President Roosevelt, July 27, has not been confirmed here, but it is thought likely that William F. Sheehan and David B. Hill favor getting the judge's "views" before the public in advance of the President's letter of acceptance.

HAVING PICTURE PAINTED.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M. ESOPUS, July 1.—Judge Parker's day has been more than ordinarily uneventful today. John D. Rockefeller and wife, who arrived at Kingston last night, and whose arrival created considerable comment, left the hotel to drive down the river without having appeared at Esopus. Judge Parker's only visitor during the morning was the artist who is painting his portrait.

Senator Daniel replied to Bryan, and was very vigorous in his denunciation of the course the Nebraska was pursuing. He said that he wanted to win, and desired a platform which would bring to the Democratic party the voters who had left it when pursuing a course which Bryan had shaped and advocated. He was tired of being forever in the minority, and insisted that it would be absurd for Democrats, facing victory, to let any action which would mean defeat to lose New York meant defeat.

HILL'S OBJECTION.

Senator Bailey and Senator Tillman, while believing in an income tax, said that, in view of the statement of the New York member of the committee, it would be unwise to insist upon the income tax plank. Senator Bailey then asked unanimous consent to have both the income tax amendment and the gold standard plank dropped, but to a prolonged discussion, Hill taking a leading part in it. He was opposed to the insertion of an income tax plank, because he

PLATFORM CHOPPERS.

Work of the Committee on Resolutions—Hill and Bryan Laugh Together After Gold Plank is Knocked Out—Dave's Ignorance.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—After a continuous session of sixteen hours, the Committee on Resolutions perfected the platform and adjourned, just before noon, instructing its subcommittee to arrange the draft for submission to the general committee at 6 o'clock this evening, to be reported to the convention two hours later.

The report is a compromise, acceptable to all the interests involved, and was adopted unanimously by the committee. It may be said in a general way to have been a concession to the Bryan wing of the party, without in any way stifling the declarations of the conservatives. The absence of any pronouncement on the financial question is most significant, and discloses the utter impossibility of the subcommittee's declaration upon this subject.

During the watches of the long night, in the committee there were many dramatic scenes, not the least striking of which was the verbal encounter between Senator Hill and Bryan. It occurred while Bryan was engaged in making one of his many attacks on the gold standard plank, as framed by the subcommittee. He was wrought up to a high tension, when, approaching the New York leader and shaking his finger dangerously close to the nose of that gentleman, he exclaimed: "You ought to have a gold platform to go with the gold candidate you are forcing upon the country."

Hill replied that he knew nothing as to Parker's monetary views. "Do you mean to say," demanded the Nebraska, "that you don't know Judge Parker's financial views?" "I mean just that," responded Hill. "You have no knowledge on that subject."

"None."

"Have you asked him?"

"I have not. I have never sought to secure an expression of his views and he never sought to convey them to me. I only know that he is a Democrat and a high-minded patriotic man, and I believe that he can be trusted implicitly on this as upon other matters of public policy."

Bryan then demanded to know when the gold plank had been decided upon, and Hill had been incorporated in the New York platform.

Hill replied that the matter had first been discussed at the meeting of the delegates about ten days ago, and that the declaration was the result of a decision by other members of the delegation than himself.

ALL-NIGHT SESSION.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M. ST. LOUIS, July 1.—At 4:40 o'clock this morning, the Committee on Resolutions voted the gold-standard plank out of the Democratic platform, by a vote of 25 to 15. This was the third victory for William J. Bryan during the all-night session of the committee. He had made two successful efforts, early in the evening, and secured modifications of the tariff plank on two separate votes. An effort was made to secure a recess after the vote on the gold plank, but it was voted down, and the committee continued with its work on other features of the platform.

INCOME TAX.

The contest was one of the most interesting features of the convention. The main fight was upon the proposed income tax providing for an amendment to the Constitution to meet the adverse decision of the Supreme Court upon the Wilson law. It was upon this amendment and the gold plank, the two propositions having been brought in conjunction, that Bryan made his strong fight.

William Jennings Bryan offered the income-tax amendment, and it was immediately antagonized by former Senator Hill who stated that with such a plank in the platform the country could not be carried for the Democratic nominee. He urged the adoption of a platform which will enable the Democrats to win in doubtful States and elect their candidates.

William withdrew the amendment, saying that he, with many others, was seeking harmony and an adjustment of all difficulties, with a view of succeeding upon a Democratic platform.

BRYAN'S POLICY.

Bryan made an income-tax amendment. He asserted that while votes might be lost among the very rich, the Democratic party ought to consider the great mass of the people who bear the burdens of taxation and the expenses of the government.

DENOUNCED BY DANIEL.

Senator Daniel replied to Bryan, and was very vigorous in his denunciation of the course the Nebraska was pursuing. He said that he wanted to win, and desired a platform which would bring to the Democratic party the voters who had left it when pursuing a course which Bryan had shaped and advocated. He was tired of being forever in the minority, and insisted that it would be absurd for Democrats, facing victory, to let any action which would mean defeat to lose New York meant defeat.

HILL'S OBJECTION.

Senator Bailey and Senator Tillman, while believing in an income tax, said that, in view of the statement of the New York member of the committee, it would be unwise to insist upon the income tax plank. Senator Bailey then asked unanimous consent to have both the income tax amendment and the gold standard plank dropped, but to a prolonged discussion, Hill taking a leading part in it. He was opposed to the insertion of an income tax plank, because he saw no necessity for making this new issue.

FOR GOLD, 15; AGAINST, 25.

After several other members had been heard briefly, the question was demanded. The gold plank was stricken out by a vote of 25 to 15.

Early in the night, Bryan had withdrawn temporarily his income-tax resolution. At this juncture an attempt was made to secure a recess, but it was unsuccessful. Senator Tillman remarking that "It was sun up, and we might as well go ahead."

Bryan got the floor soon after the adoption of the motion striking out the gold plank, and formally presented for the individual consideration of the members a financial plank which it is his intention later to present as a substitute for the gold plank.

PANAMA CANAL STRADDLE.

The Panama Canal plank brought out severe criticism from Senator Pettigrew. He said that the canal could not be built in ten years, and when completed would be valueless. The plank was modified so as to promote the canal, but it was not adopted.

BRYAN'S ANTI-TRUST PLANK.

The committee then took up the trust plank. This was the subject of considerable discussion, Senator Bailey being among the more important speakers in defense of the subcommittee's report.

Bryan offered an amendment to this plank, declaring in specific terms for the prosecution of the trusts, and reciting the manner in which it should be done. This was voted in by 25 to 20.

The majority of the votes came from Iowa, Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Wyoming, the Territories, Porto Rico and Hawaii, while the negative votes were from the East and South.

Severe comments were made by a number of representatives from other States in the effect that radical amendments were being forced into the platform by men from Republican States and Territories which could not contribute a single electoral vote to the Democratic candidate.

Pettigrew offered an amendment providing for the government ownership of railroads and telegraphs. "Oh, that's silly," said Hill. The amendment was voted down.

SLASH AT THE NAVY.

Reciprocity and the Monroe doctrine as handled by the subcommittee met the approval of the full committee. But not so with the navy plank, calling for a liberal annual increase in the navy. Senator Tillman said that this plank would gain no votes, and there was no necessity of mentioning the navy. The plank was stricken out.

LABOR PLANK ADOPTED.

The plank proposed by Ex-Gov. Thomas of Colorado regarding labor was adopted by the committee.

THE TERRITORIES.

The committee, after a lengthy debate adopted the plank relating to the Territories. It was a separate Statehood offered by Delegate Timmons of Arizona with respect to Arizona and New Mexico, as follows: "We favor the immediate admission of Arizona and New Mexico as separate States."

In dealing with the question of Statehood for Oklahoma and Indian Territory, the committee was less emphatic in its declaration, containing the plank to a general recommendation of Statehood for those two Territories, as follows: "We favor the admission of the Territories of Oklahoma and Indian Territory."

CURRENCY TINKERING.

The currency plank offered by Bryan was referred to a subcommittee consisting of Williams, Bryan and Hill with authority to draft a financial plank for submission to the full committee. The opinion was expressed that these men might agree upon something, and if they should, it would probably eliminate any fight on the floor of the convention. One of the western members said that he did not expect Bryan to make a minority report in view of the many changes he had been able to procure in the platform.

When at 8:30 o'clock a.m., the last plank as drafted by the subcommittee had been read, the members of the committee applauded.

TILLMAN SUSPICIOUS OF BRYAN.

Bryan said that if his desired amendment to the trust plank should be adopted, he would not press the plank favoring the imposition of an income tax. Senator Tillman, upon noting a smile on the faces of both Bryan and Hill, remarked to Bryan that "since you and Mr. Hill seem to have become so chummy, I think we had better look further into the trust plank."

Discussion of it thereupon was resumed, and Frank J. Cannon of Utah took the floor.

CANNON "KICKS."

"I fought for Mr. Bryan in 1896 and 1900," he said, "on the paramount issue of that campaign, but now that he has abandoned those issues, I will vote against this proposition which he seems to want most."

Cannon, in conclusion, contended that the paramount issue in this campaign was "victory," and that the issue should be "Rooseveltism."

BRYAN DEPRECATES "VICTORY."

Bryan defended his position on the trust question, saying that "victory" alone should not essentially be the paramount issue, and that unless a question was settled right, it was never settled at all.

Senator Daniel called Mr. Shively to the chair and made a speech supporting the principle of anti-trust legislation. He took the position, however, that, if enforced, the existing interstate commerce law and anti-trust statutes are sufficient, and he believed a Democratic administration should be depended upon to enforce them. Hence he considered it safe to omit the proposed plank.

"I believe," he said, "it will hurt us; it will weaken our platform, but if the members of this committee think otherwise, it should go in, but the question of the gold standard is of far more importance."

NOT REPUBLICANS, BUT GOD.

Hill urged that if the gold plank was omitted, the party would be placed in a false position. If the party was in favor of free and unlimited coinage of silver, that was another thing, but through no fault of the party, conditions had changed, and it had been proven that the gold standard was the solution of the question. Although the Republican platform declared in favor of gold, he pointed out that the Democrats, in their platform, could show that the Republicans were not responsible for the change in conditions, which made the gold standard desirable, but the Almighty Himself.

"ANY OLD PLATFORM."

Hill talked eloquently of the personality of Judge Parker. He said that, in the course of a conversation about ten days ago, with the New York jurist, the latter said in reply to a question about the kind of platform the Democrats should adopt: "I am entirely willing to leave that to the wisdom of the Democratic party."

But while Hill did not assume to say that he spoke for Judge Parker, the committee interpreted the inference of his speech to be that Judge Parker favored the insertion of a gold plank.

"I do not think it is improper for us to say who we want to win," continued Hill. "I shall work hard for whomever the Democrats nominate, but I think the platform is of the greatest importance, and especially the gold-standard plank."

Hill was applauded at the conclusion of his speech.

BRYAN TALKS BACK.

Bryan replied at length, and insisted that, in the face of past declarations, a gold plank would now alienate many thousands of Democratic voters. He said that when the campaign for Judge Parker was started, it was never expected that the Democratic party was to go beyond a declaration for the gold standard.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

Thomas of Colorado also made a strong protest against the gold-standard plank.

Senator Carmack of Tennessee said that he hoped some agreement could be reached which would bring to the support of the Democratic South the Democratic party of the North. As to the money question, that was for the time settled, and he urged that that matter be not injected into the campaign.

Shively of Indiana, followed much in the same line as Carmack. Fleming of Wisconsin, was opposed to the gold plank, and favored the declaration of the Williams plank.

DANIEL ATTACKS BRYAN.

Shortly before 6 o'clock, Senator Daniel created a sensation by an attack upon Bryan, which soon evolved cries for order.

Senator Daniel, who some time before called Senator Tillman to the chair, began by saying he questioned the propriety of a man whom the Democrats had twice honored with the Presidential nomination, and under whose leadership the party had twice been defeated, attempting to force his leadership upon the party again. Growing more impassioned, Daniel said: "The silver question was a question in Virginia ten years before the gentleman from Nebraska discovered it, but conditions have changed, and heroic changes demand heroic remedies. We must consider New England, New York, and that section of the country."

Then, facing Bryan, Senator Daniel

said: "He has reviled every man any State has recognized as President, and as far as I am able to learn, has not a candidate of his own."

AT THIS POINT BRYAN INTERRUPTED WITH A SHOUT OF "ORDER."

Bryan asked that Senator Daniel be allowed to proceed, and resumed. Continuing the attack, he said: "I am convinced that the party is on the verge of a great victory, but not the time for selfish considerations of personal likes or dislikes."

DANIEL FAVORED THE GOLD PLANK.

MARYLAND TREMBLED. For of Maryland made a vigorous appeal for the gold plank, declaring that if the gold plank was omitted, the party would be placed in a false position.

Senator Daniel called Mr. Shively to the chair and made a speech supporting the principle of anti-trust legislation. He took the position, however, that, if enforced, the existing interstate commerce law and anti-trust statutes are sufficient, and he believed a Democratic administration should be depended upon to enforce them. Hence he considered it safe to omit the proposed plank.

"I believe," he said, "it will hurt us; it will weaken our platform, but if the members of this committee think otherwise, it should go in, but the question of the gold standard is of far more importance."

Hill urged that if the gold plank was omitted, the party would be placed in a false position. If the party was in favor of free and unlimited coinage of silver, that was another thing, but through no fault of the party, conditions had changed, and it had been proven that the gold standard was the solution of the question. Although the Republican platform declared in favor of gold, he pointed out that the Democrats, in their platform, could show that the Republicans were not responsible for the change in conditions, which made the gold standard desirable, but the Almighty Himself.

"ANY OLD PLATFORM."

Hill talked eloquently of the personality of Judge Parker. He said that, in the course of a conversation about ten days ago, with the New York jurist, the latter said in reply to a question about the kind of platform the Democrats should adopt: "I am entirely willing to leave that to the wisdom of the Democratic party."

But while Hill did not assume to say that he spoke for Judge Parker, the committee interpreted the inference of his speech to be that Judge Parker favored the insertion of a gold plank.

"I do not think it is improper for us to say who we want to win," continued Hill. "I shall work hard for whomever the Democrats nominate, but I think the platform is of the greatest importance, and especially the gold-standard plank."

Hill was applauded at the conclusion of his speech.

BRYAN TALKS BACK.

Bryan replied at length, and insisted that, in the face of past declarations, a gold plank would now alienate many thousands of Democratic voters. He said that when the campaign for Judge Parker was started, it was never expected that the Democratic party was to go beyond a declaration for the gold standard.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

Thomas of Colorado also made a strong protest against the gold-standard plank.

Senator Carmack of Tennessee said that he hoped some agreement could be reached which would bring to the support of the Democratic South the Democratic party of the North. As to the money question, that was for the time settled, and he urged that that matter be not injected into the campaign.

Shively of Indiana, followed much in the same line as Carmack. Fleming of Wisconsin, was opposed to the gold plank, and favored the declaration of the Williams plank.

DANIEL ATTACKS BRYAN.

Shortly before 6 o'clock, Senator Daniel created a sensation by an attack upon Bryan, which soon evolved cries for order.

Senator Daniel, who some time before called Senator Tillman to the chair, began by saying he questioned the propriety of a man whom the Democrats had twice honored with the Presidential nomination, and under whose leadership the party had twice been defeated, attempting to force his leadership upon the party again. Growing more impassioned, Daniel said: "The silver question was a question in Virginia ten years before the gentleman from Nebraska discovered it, but conditions have changed, and heroic changes demand heroic remedies. We must consider New England, New York, and that section of the country."

Then, facing Bryan, Senator Daniel

AT THIS POINT BRYAN INTERRUPTED WITH A SHOUT OF "ORDER."

Bryan asked that Senator Daniel be allowed to proceed, and resumed. Continuing the attack, he said: "I am convinced that the party is on the verge of a great victory, but not the time for selfish considerations of personal likes or dislikes."

DANIEL FAVORED THE GOLD PLANK.

MARYLAND TREMBLED. For of Maryland made a vigorous appeal for the gold plank, declaring that if the gold plank was omitted, the party would be placed in a false position.

Senator Daniel called Mr. Shively to the chair and made a speech supporting the principle of anti-trust legislation. He took the position, however, that, if enforced, the existing interstate commerce law and anti-trust statutes are sufficient, and he believed a Democratic administration should be depended upon to enforce them. THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS

Band Leader.

At a meeting last night of the Catholic Order of Foresters, J. W. Elmer was appointed leader of the C.O.F. Band. Election of officers will be held July 15.

Her Niece Drowned.

Mrs. Simon Levy received the sad news yesterday of the drowning of her niece, Miss Anna Meyer, in San Francisco. Mrs. Levy left for the northern metropolis last night.

Daughters of Confederacy Picnic.

Wade Hampton Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will have a picnic today at Long Beach, and the members extend an invitation to participate to all friends of the chapter and all veterans. An interesting program will be rendered.

Knight of Honor Entertained.

An entertainment and dance was given Thursday night at Cuneo Hall by the Knights of Honor, in celebration of their thirtieth anniversary. The program included numbers from Mr. Usher, Miss Kellam, Mrs. James Hall, John Graves and Miss Ada Showalter, after which there was dancing.

Murphy to Talk.

Assured-tongued will be the speech of Francis Murphy at Blanchard Hall tomorrow evening. "The Origin of the Irish Ribbon" will be his subject. J. W. Scolliston will preside and the singing will be under the leadership of Charles Lamb. Among those who are to speak are Carley Wyn and Frank O. Finlayson.

Jury Discharged.

The federal grand jury brought in two indictments yesterday, one against Antonio Leo on the charge of selling liquor to Indians at Pala. He is in jail at San Diego. The other indictment was not made public, as the person concerned is not in custody. The jury made its final report to the court and was discharged.

Boys Entertained.

A large audience greeted Dr. Hugh X. Walker last night at Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, South, where he delivered a lecture on this trip to the Holy Land. The lecture was free, and was in Dr. Walker's happiest vein. It was given under the auspices of a group of boys known as "The Vanguard," and on next Friday night Judge Wilbur will entertain them and their friends.

Struck With Beer Bottle.

Comas Piers, a bartender at the Wells saloon at North Main and Alameda streets, was arrested last night by Detective Cowan on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Because C. Cayser had not paid for his drinks promptly enough, the bartender, returning a tender of the money, threw a beer bottle, cutting open his scalp to an extent that the Police Surgeon found it necessary to take six stitches.

Adobe Row Fired.

Mischief-makers, whose identity is not known, set fire to a row of adobe buildings on Buena Vista street north of Balboa avenue yesterday afternoon, just to see the roofs burn. The houses, which are among the oldest in the city, were unoccupied, having been purchased recently by the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Company. The single roofs of three of the buildings were burned off, and the others were left with less. The buildings were soon to be razed.

Handful and Party Here.

A strong quartet of Southern Pacific talent arrived in the city last night for a few days' stay. The nature of their business is unknown. "We came from Arizona, where there never is any news, and where we never hear anything," said Spies Randolph. "We did hear, however, that there was a Republican convention, back at Chicago," he added. The other members of the party are Chief Engineer Hood, Mr. Spurr of San Francisco and Frank Cox of Tucson.

Caught With MIA Booty.

Sam Mosenberg was arrested yesterday on a charge of petty larceny and the proceeds of his thefts were found in his possession. He went into a South Main-street restaurant wearing a battered hat which he substituted for a $10 Panama which he found hanging beside his own. Being unable to sell the Panama, he stored it in his trunk and after H. C. Henson, who owned the hat, had reported the matter to the police the officers found it in Mosenberg's possession. He said he found it, but was locked up and will have to explain in the Police Court.

Retreat for Catholics.

Bishop County is conducting a retreat this week for the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart at the Pico Heights convent. A retreat was commenced last night at the Sisters' orphanage on Buena Vista street. The Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, it is conducted by Rev. E. A. Antill, C.M., St. Vincent's College. A retreat for the Sisters' Hospital is also in progress, conducted by Rev. F. X. McCabe.

On in Plain View.

The dispatch from San Francisco printed in The Times yesterday morning stating that it was said Walter H. Orr, Jr. had disappeared under a cloud, was erroneous, as Orr is in Los Angeles. He stated yesterday that he had come down from the north to meet certain of his creditors, and has never entertained any intention to "disappear." He said he had been mentioned in the dispatch above mentioned, that he has been involved in unfair dealings. Business houses in this city that have done business with him in connection with his mining work above Needles, say that he has always been square with them, and paid his bills promptly.

BREVITIES.

Subscribers to The Times are offered a 12.50 Columbia graphophone of cost of freight, handling, etc., to wit: $1.25, which includes a single record of your own selection. The price of gold-molded records under this arrangement is 35 cents each (former charge 50 cents each). The machine can be heard to play at the Times office, where it is on exhibition daily. The plan will be explained fully to anyone calling at The Times' Graphophone Department.

SELF-WOUNDED WITH RIFLE IS SEVEN-YEAR-OLD.

Del Mar Boys Play With Firearm With Frightful Result—San Diego Republican Convention to be Held on August Nineteenth—Arnold Estate Case to be Tried Here.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Republican County Central Committee it was decided to hold the county convention in this city on August 12. It was determined that the appointment of delegates to the convention should be one delegate for every fifteen votes cast for Pardo in 1932, or for a majority fraction, which would give this city a representation of 111 delegates in the convention. The delegates to the State and Congress conventions will be selected at primary elections to be held on August 19.

WILL TRY IN LOS ANGELES.

The motion of J. W. Britt, attorney for Alfred P. Rosenheim, for a change of venue in two cases in the Superior Court was granted today by Judge Torrance. Both actions were brought against Rosenheim several weeks ago by C. W. Baker as special administrator of the estate of Harriet M. Arnold.

The motion of J. W. Britt, attorney for Alfred P. Rosenheim, for a change of venue in two cases in the Superior Court was granted today by Judge Torrance. Both actions were brought against Rosenheim several weeks ago by C. W. Baker as special administrator of the estate of Harriet M. Arnold.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Republican County Central Committee it was decided to hold the county convention in this city on August 12.

It was determined that the appointment of delegates to the convention should be one delegate for every fifteen votes cast for Pardo in 1932, or for a majority fraction, which would give this city a representation of 111 delegates in the convention. The delegates to the State and Congress conventions will be selected at primary elections to be held on August 19.

GROUND IS BROKEN FOR POLYTECHNIC.

Start Made on Our City's Wonderful New High School, to Beat Anything on the Coast—Sewing, Cooking, Buzz Saw and Athletic Rooms.

GROUND was broken yesterday for the construction of the $200,000 Polytechnic High School on Washington street. The first building lines were laid out by Contractor Engstrom and City Engineer Stafford. A new era in the educational work of Los Angeles has begun—a step forward has been taken placing our city in the van.

the kind in the West. Her people will be proud of it. The Polytechnic High School will open new fields for the student. From the domestic science of the household: cooking, sewing and even washing and ironing, he or she may march on to the higher arts of the crayon, brush or modeler's mould. The choice of vocation will be wide and unhampered in such a school. The various departments will represent almost all the walks of life.

As it is to be a school open only to those who have completed at least two years of the high school course, it will turn out finished artisans, men prepared for life. From behind the big pillars will step forth architects, engineers, astronomers, chemists and men of all the sciences, wood carvers, modelers and artists. The buildings will cover several acres and will consist of a group of four structures built of brick and cement in the Ionic style of architecture. The plan is the outcome of long and untiring labor on the part of members of the Board of Education and the architects, Burnham & Benson, and will embody the most modern ideas of polytechnic equipment. Principal Francis is in the East at present, making a study of polytechnic high schools and superintending of Schools for Boys abroad for the same purpose. W. J. Blinnert spent one month just a year ago in the study of polytechnic systems, during which time he visited the best schools in the country.

IMPOSING PICTURE. The piece of ground on which the buildings are to be located is L shaped with a frontage of 84 feet on Washington street, 172 on West Twentieth and a depth of 302 feet. It is situated directly opposite to Hope street which ends at Washington, and from this corner a most imposing picture will be presented by the classic structure. The main building with its six massive white pillars extending to the top of the third floor and the broad, central steps of the approach to the vestibule will be directly opposite, while a little to the left and connected by a two-story corridor will be the main assembly hall with its shining dome. While the buildings are not to be made of marble and are simple in their architectural lines, they will lack nothing in attractiveness. Substantial, economical and practical in their construction, they will fully represent the polytechnic arts for which they were designed.

Back of the main building or educational hall will be a magnificent science hall, united by short corridors. The open side of the L, fronting on Bernard Park and West Twentieth street at present, is not a part of the property, but steps are being taken which should procure it. There are to be no basements and the first floors will be at a level of six inches above ground. The first floor of the educational building is to be devoted exclusively to domestic lines and will include kitchen, dining-room, pantry, serving counters fitted up with steam tables, and all requisites of the culinary art. A laundry will be complete, with drying and ironing rooms. For dressmaking there will be machine-sewing, hand-sewing, fitting and robing rooms with lecture rooms adjacent to each. A most interesting place will be the lunch room which will occupy the third floor. The room will be in two sections, one for the girls and one for the boys.

Entrance to the main floor will be through a handsome vestibule, 15 by 25 feet with three sets of double swinging doors. It will core, in of six class rooms, the library and the executive department, including a reception room, the principal's office, clerk's office, teachers' assembly room, a commercial department will be complete with typewriting, stenography, penmanship, commercial arithmetic, commercial geography and commercial music, and there will be two general recitation rooms.

The third floor is to be devoted to the arts, such as mechanical drawing, free-hand drawing, painting, photography and modeling. There will be rooms for blue-print work and large storerooms. To the average visitor this will prove the power could be bought on the market. The school will be fitted throughout with stand-pipes and fire hose as a precautionary measure. In addition there will be a complete fire-alarm system with boxes and gongs connected with the fire department. The telephone exchange will be situated in the office of the clerk adjoining the principal's room and will supply every room with communication. There is also to be a complete clock system operated by electricity with secondary clocks to automatically regulate the study periods.

LOVING FLOCK GREETES THEM.

AFFECTIONATE RECEPTION FOR THE BURDETTE.

There Will be no Place for Sleeping in the Temple Baptist's New Temple Says the Inimitable Pastor—Mrs. Burdette Acknowledges a New Greeting.

That was a loving greeting from a loyal congregation which the Temple Baptist tendered to their pastor, Rev. Robert J. Burdette, and Mrs.

Sketch of Los Angeles Polytechnic High School Buildings, Most Advanced Educational Enterprise on Pacific Coast, Work on Which Was Begun Yesterday.

Burdette, last night at the church parlors. There was a spontaneity and a heartiness about the welcome which spoke volumes of the church's affection for its pastor. The services were made bright by the use of the American colors, and the judicious distribution of potted palms and cut flowers. An immense flag draped the entire wall back of the platform. The side rooms were fitted up with tables, rugs and easy chairs, giving a very home-like aspect to the big building with eight sections.

The services were in charge of Dr. Barton Doster, and there were greetings expressed from the various heads of the church's departments. The board of deacons was represented by D. H. Edwards; R. E. Selph gave the welcome of the Women's Club of the United States. In order that she might help her husband in his pastoral work.

The Sunday-school had as its spokesman C. H. Baskerville, who was recently in the Holy Land, and who spoke of the welcome accorded him and others of the party because of the acquaintance of people in the far-off lands with his pastor, Harlan W. Clive, who brought a glowing tribute from the Baptist Young People's Society of the Woman's Union had Mrs. W. H. Bernard as its speaker, and Leslie Gray spoke as the editor of the Church Calendar.

One of the prettiest features of the evening was the greeting from the primary department of the Sunday-school, presented by a sweet tot, so small she had to stand on a box to enable the company to see her. It was Mildred McClure, and her greeting was in rhyme.

Mr. Burdette responded to all these greetings in his usual hearty and cheerful manner. He said the Temple Baptist is one of the best-known churches in the United States, and everywhere there was a kindly feeling, a feeling of lively interest. Live-ly, he thought, than is displayed right here at home.

"Now that is a good thing for us, to be so well known," said Mr. Burdette, "but it must make us doubly careful, doubly enthusiastic, doubly earnest, because if we make any mistakes, that this country will know it. Here is a man walking along the street. He steps on an orange peel and falls down in half a dozen directions. The first thing he does when he gets on his feet

WOULD GRAB MOUNT LOWE.

Sensational Filing by the "Angels Mining Co."

Lays Claims to All Lands of Incline Railroad.

Conflict Between Claimants and Huntington.

An aggregation of local men, banding under the name of the "Angels Gold Mining Company," have filed in the United States Land Office here an application for mineral patent to a total of 2833 acres of land in the San Gabriel forest reserve, in direct conflict, in places, with the right of way of the Pacific Electric Mount Lowe railway and its grants for resort purposes.

Sketch of Los Angeles Polytechnic High School Buildings, Most Advanced Educational Enterprise on Pacific Coast, Work on Which Was Begun Yesterday.

Included in the application for mineral patent is the entire grant to the railroad of about forty acres on which is located Mount Lowe, and a portion of the road's right of way, the grant on top of Mount Lowe; the water supply above Alpine Tavern, which is the source of the water furnished the railroad's Mount Lowe resort; and a portion of the site on which runs the Pacific Electric railway and station at the foot of the great incline; also some of the right of way below Tiburon.

If these lands, claimed by the Angels Gold Mining Company, can be proven by the applicants as mineral in character, their attorneys say the latter's claims will take precedence over those of the railroad, and the transportation and resort company will be deemed to have with a mineral patent a claim to the land. Although the grants now pending over this mineral application were made to the United States Land Office by act of Congress years ago, neither the builders nor their successors want to the expense of having the government survey the lands, so that a mineral patent could be obtained; hence the railroad's rights may not be final, if the land can be proved mineral in character. In the full interpretation of the government with reference to this subject.

It is said that the real intent of the Angels Gold Mining Company is not to develop the mineral wealth hidden in and around Mount Lowe, but to exploit the water resources on a large scale, to supply adjacent country below. Tunnels have already been run into the mountain at different points, and the company claims to have spent about $15,000, ostensibly in the development of mineral. Its first claims were located in 1885. To secure the rights on land contained in a few set reserves, whereby the development of water can be proceeded with, the company will first have to prove the land mineral in character, as the only course by which it may be obtained.

A hearing of the peculiar case in the local Land Office has been set for August 15, when steps will be taken to ascertain which of the conflicting interests has right to the territory involved. Interest in the case runs high among those who have heard of the filing by the alleged mining company, and the Huntington interests are preparing to fight the new claimants to the hilt.

It is said that the railroad company has hastened to deposit the necessary fund with the government to have the land officially surveyed at once.

ENGINEERS.

Controllers of Stationary Steam Assemblies Held in First Annual Convention.

Los Angeles, city of conventions, harbors another convocation within its boundaries—this being the first annual gathering for this State of the National Association of Stationary Engineers.

The meeting began yesterday morning in Turner Hall, with twenty-five delegates answering the official roll-call, in addition to a goodly number of other visitors.

All the large cities of the State are represented in this session, and the members expressed a decided interest in the affiliation of their association with any alleged "labor union." These declarations of principle, said that "this association shall at no time be used for the furtherance of strikes, or for the purpose of interfering in any way between its members and their employers in regard to wages; recognizing the identity of interests between employer and employee, and not countenancing any project or enterprise that will interfere with perfect harmony between them."

Today, after a short business session, the new State officers will be installed and a banquet will follow. The afternoon will be given over to a trip over the "Zipline Route" through Hollywood, Santa Monica and the Palms, and a dinner party is scheduled for the evening, sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Those in charge of the arrangements here are J. P. Connor, Clayton Lewis, John Prosser, A. M. Woods, G. F. Stephenson and Frederick McKee.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
PHILADELPHIA, July 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Mayor and police authorities have forbidden the "Bob" Fitzsimmons-Jack O'Brien fight scheduled for tonight, for the light heavyweight championship of the world. The officials decided that it promised to be a prize fight in the full sense of the word and not a boxing contest, and therefore, it would be illegal both under the laws of Pennsylvania and the local ordinance. It was not until the last moment that the fight promoters were advised of the Mayor's action. They at once lodged a protest. It is understood that instead of calling the fight off it has been postponed for two weeks and will then be fought either here or at Chicago. Fight fans were greatly disappointed when the fight was called off. All day fight fans have been gathering here expecting to see one of the greatest fights of the year. Fitzsimmons and O'Brien were early on the scene and ready for the battle.

THE PHILIPPINE
NATIVE SOLDIER.

STORY OF ITS ORGANIZATION BY
THE AMERICANS.

Macabebes Did Good Service as Scouts With Gen. Lawton and
Gen. Young. The Constabulary
Battalion—Grand Divisions of the Philippine People.

One of the most interesting portions
of the folder just issued by the World's Fair-Philippine Exposition officials is
that which treats of the native soldiery,
its make-up and its distinguished
services.

"In the early days of the American
occupation of the Philippine Islands,
friendly natives were used to some extent
as guides, scouts, etc. They were hired by the Quartermaster's Department
and had no status as enlisted
soldiers—the Macabebes had been
loyal to Spain, and she enlisted one or two regiments from that tribe. When
the Government of the island passed to
us, the Macabebes asserted their loyalty,
and evinced a desire to cast in
their lot with us.

In the fall of 1898, when General
Lawton was preparing to make his
campaign through northern Luzon,
several companies of Macabebes were

ing in all the scout companies. The fifty companies are distributed as follows

TENNIS WIND-UP AT OCEAN PARK.

FINALS OF TOURNAMENT WILL BE SETTLED TODAY.

Pick of the Entire Event Remains
in High Class Play is a Certainly-Hard to Pick a Winner in Open Singles and Doubles—Those Who Are to Participate.

The unfinished programme of tournament matches left over from last Monday will be completed at the courts of
the Ocean Park Country Club today,
and as the pick of the entry list is left
to compete, it may be freely predicted
that some of the best tennis of the year will be seen this afternoon. Lively work will be necessary to finish the events today, but several matches in doubles which were played off last evening at the local Central courts
helped somewhat to clear up matters.
The liveliest of the lot was the defeat
of Rowan and Gorham by Overton
and Craven 6-4, 6-3, 6-2, the play
being close and full of interest
throughout. Several other matches were played off. Rob Rowan had the misfortune to wrench his knee, but continued playing nevertheless. A sudden twist after a cross-court shot
of Overton's was responsible. Mr.
Rowan, counting that he is out of condition and has not touched a racket for several years previous to
the tournament, is in excellent form,
having all his old-time cunning.
Play at Ocean Park this morning will start early, junior singles having a long run to travel before the winners meet. Rowan will play the winner meeting Barnwell. Cadwallader
and Halsebury, Townsend and Hutton
and the winners of these matches have also arguments to settle.

In gentlemen's singles Craven, Overton, Halsebury and Hendrick are a hard quartette to pick a winner from.
Any one of the four has a chance.
Apparently Halsebury and Hendrick are the favorites. A number of matches are to be played off in this event also.
The final in men's doubles will be played today, and good tennis may be looked for.

THE PHILIPPINE
NATIVE SOLDIER.

STORY OF ITS ORGANIZATION BY
THE AMERICANS.

Macabebes Did Good Service as
Scouts With Gen. Lawton and
Gen. Young. The Constabulary
Battalion—Grand Divisions of the Philippine People.

One of the most interesting portions
of the folder just issued by the World's Fair-Philippine Exposition officials is
that which treats of the native soldiery,
its make-up and its distinguished
services.

"In the early days of the American
occupation of the Philippine Islands,
friendly natives were used to some extent
as guides, scouts, etc. They were
hired by the Quartermaster's Department
and had no status as enlisted
soldiers—the Macabebes had been
loyal to Spain, and she enlisted one or
two regiments from that tribe. When
the Government of the island passed to
us, the Macabebes asserted their loyalty,
and evinced a desire to cast in
their lot with us.

In the fall of 1898, when General
Lawton was preparing to make his
campaign through northern Luzon,
several companies of Macabebes were organized, and formed into what was known as "Baton's Scouts." They did good service with him, and accompanied General Young on his march to the north, where they were frequently engaged with the insurgents. Following insistence under white officers. They always proved loyal, have all been under fire, and their service has brought results, either in military prisoners or captured arms and ammunition. After the military government ceased to exist, and the civil government was set on foot, the scouts formed part of the civil government, the scouts

formed part of the many garrisons throughout the islands. The civil government found it impossible to keep
the lawless element, ladrones, etc., under subjection with the civil military, and in 1901 an act of Congress
was passed authorizing the use of scouts to aid the civil establishment,
and since that act went into operation
very nearly the whole scout force has formed a part of the insular police,
and as such has been almost constantly engaged in field work, having
in many cases pitched battles with armed bands of ladrones.

THE PROVINCIAL BATTALION.
One of the companies in this battalion (4th) made a very gallant attack upon a fortified position occupied by a band of these ladrones, routing them
killing and capturing a large number, among them being the chief,
though at the expense of some killing and wounded among the scouts, whom the scouts of the company commander, who still commands his company. This battalion, known as the Provincial Battalion of Philippine Scouts, was organized in July, 1901, by direction of the Hon. Secretary of War, the suggestion having been made by
Hon. D. R. Francis, of St. Louis,
he having requested that such a battalion be sent to the Philippine Islands in connection with the Philippine Exposition.

Major de la Corription, First Infantry, who has served through the Samar campaign, and had scouts
under his command then, had in January, 1901, been placed in command of the camp of six companies of scouts,
and the division commander selected
him to organize the Provincial Battalion. The major was told to select four companies from the fifty, the only restriction being that each company
must be of a different tribe, and of one of the four principal tribes. As far as would have been possible, the four
good service, some more conspicuous owing to circumstances and opportunities, and finally resulted in the selection of—Fourth Macabebes, Lieut. Rees,
commanding.
Twenty-fourth Ilocanos, Lieut.
Dougherty, commanding.
Thirtieth Tagalos, Lieut. Dwork,
commanding.
Forty-seventh Visayans, Lieut. King,
commanding.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE.
In each company some of the old original scouts still serve. All of them have done good, active service; all have been under fire, and all have proven loyal and brave. Some wear bad scars from the Samar and Luzon campaigns.

The fourth company, back to the "Baton's Battalion," and it distinguished itself more than once.
The twenty-fourth company did excellent service in the Samar campaign, where many times they met
and defeated insurgents under Lubkan
and Guevara.

The thirtieth company did excellent service in Laguna and Cavite, being frequently under fire of insurgents and ladrones. On one occasion four companies of this company attacked an armed
band of about forty ladrones and successfully stood them off until help came.

The forty-seventh company did excellent service in Iloilo, and had many brushes with insurgents, on one occasion capturing and killing a large number of ladrones near Iloilo.

The officers, as before remarked, are nearly all ex-non-commissioned officers
of the regular or volunteer army, and have all had the advantage of first hand experience in the Philippines.
They are untried in their efforts to make their companies models, and they will have the inspection in drill,
discipline, and soldierly conduct, and
commander need want better officers.

The battalion band has been organized by taking men from the regular army, and putting them under instruction. The strongest impulse to its organization was given by the Forty-seventh company, which had its own band before the Provisional Battalion was formed.

THE CONSTABULARY BATTALION
The Constabulary Battalion is housed
in the Cuartel Filipino, some distance
in the rear of the government building.
This battalion was organized under special authority of the Philippine Commission as a representation of the constabulary of the Philippine Islands,
at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.
The battalion is composed of eleven companies, and 250 enlisted men, of which fourteen are from the constabulary,
and the balance of the direction of Lieut. Lovins, forms one of the principal attractions of the exposition. The battalion is organized as follows: Capt. R.
Kiethly, commanding; First Lieut.
Nelson A. Gilpin, adjutant; Third
Lieut. John S. Manning, G. I.; First
Lieut. A. A. Cameron, Med. O.

The organization of the battalion
was commenced in October, 1903,
but not entirely completed until July,
prior to the date of departure from the islands, March 11, 1904. The men were selected from the constabulary, and throughout the archipelago from mem-

intention being to give each province
of the islands an adequate representation. All the Christian tribes of the islands are represented in this battalion, in addition to the Moros, of the Mohammedan religion, are enlisted in Co. A of the battalion. These Moros were selected from the Fifth Constabulary District, which is com-

which Gen. Leonard Wood is Governor,
which is designated as Moro province.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PHILADELPHIA, July 8.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Mayor and police authorities have forbidden the "Bob" Fitzsimmons-Jack O'Brien fight, scheduled for tonight, for the light heavyweight championship of the world. The authorities decided that it promised to be a prize fight in the full sense of the term and not a boxing contest, and that, therefore, it would be illegal both under the laws of Pennsylvania and a local ordinance. It was not until the last moment that the fight promoters were advised of the Mayor's action. They at once lodged a protest. It is understood that instead of calling the fight off it has been postponed for two weeks and will then be fought either here or at Chicago. Fight followers were greatly disappointed when it was called off. All day fight fans have been gathering here expecting to see one of the greatest fights of the year. Fitzsimmons and O'Brien were early on the scene and ready for the battle.

POLITICAL UNION LEAGUE HOUSEWARM.

Plans Made for Reception and Banquet.

Unsurpassed Elegance of the Club's New Home.

Everybody to be in at the Big Christening.

Great enthusiasm marked the meeting of the Union League committee yesterday, in the old rooms on Spring street, to talk over details for taking possession of the elegant new marble-clad clubhouse on Second street.

The opening reception at which the committee of Southern California will be guests if they wish to come will be held on Friday evening, July 22, and the anniversary banquet will be held on the Saturday evening following. Nothing has gone before is to be permitted to outshine these events.

The entire new building is now practically ready for the furnishings, and the committee of every appointment is anxious to even the casual observer. The "clock face" window was placed in position on the landing of the broad staircase leading to the upper floor, and makes a striking effect.

The marble framework is in place, the ceiling and the walls in granite—a color in which you will be sure to find the grape juice. Two handsome colored-glass domes are ready to be put in place, which will add a soft light down through the skylight.

The improvements to the building and its furnishings will cost, when completed, about $10,000. Every detail of the interior will be in mission style, to correspond with the woodwork, and will include just about everything that luxury suggests.

The main floor, with its inviting and beautiful appearance and surroundings of elegance, will be devoted to the reception room, dining-room and some other rooms which are not yet labeled.

In every one of these is the kitchen, and a splendidly equipped place for the use of the club. The upper floor con-

Saturday Afternoon Closing

During the months of July and August—the two hottest of the year—it is only right and proper that an employer give his or their employees a Saturday half holiday. We specialize Saturday because in the mercantile world it is the longest day in the week for most stores keep open Saturday evenings and as the Hamburgers opens at 8 o'clock and for July and August will close at 1 o'clock, we are giving each employee a 9 hour holiday which is equivalent to any other day in the week. Four or five hours at any other time than Saturday means but little for it is the Saturday night that count so much against the general health of the employee during warm weather. Hamburgers was the first department store on the coast to give Saturday half holidays. We have never waited to see what others were going to do for we have always had the reputation of being foremost in all that pertains to public good and we have earned our title to "The Store that Does Things."

Free Tickets to the Beaches

Given with Purchases Saturday Morning.

As an inducement to our patrons to do their trading Saturday morning, we have secured a large number of round-trip tickets to the beaches which will be given to every customer who purchases $5.00 and over. They are good going and returning Saturday only, and as the principal stores of the city close at one o'clock you will have no object in remaining in town and can have the afternoon's pleasure at the beach without any expense to you. The tickets are for any of these beaches: Long Beach, Redondo, Ocean Park, Santa Monica, Playa del Rey, Manhattan.

Employees Half Holiday

In giving to all of our employees Saturday afternoons and evenings during July and August we do not ask them to make themselves into walking advertisements for the store and by gratuitous feats to belittle themselves by acknowledging subordination for what any right minded employer will give as due his employees, and in respect of a general public sentiment which demands for Saturday half holidays for working people. When our employees leave the store at 1 o'clock on Saturday they are not considered around as a public circus but are allowed to go where they please, when they please and how they please; pursuing their own ideas for recreation and fitting themselves physically to be in proper temperment to attend divine services if they so desire on the Sabbath for it is late working Saturday nights that many church pews empty on Sunday. We deem it just and right to do all in our power to advance the physical and spiritual welfare of our employees.

UNION LEAGUE HOUSEWARM.

Plans Made for Reception and Banquet.

Unsurpassed Elegance of the Club's New Home.

Everybody to be in at the Big Christening.

Great enthusiasm marked the meeting of the Union League committee yesterday, in the old home on Spring street, to talk over details for taking possession of the elegant new marble-clad clubhouse on Second street.

The opening reception at which the entire populace of Southern California will be guests if they wish to come, will be held on Friday evening, July 15, and the dedicatory banquet will be held on the Saturday evening following. Nothing that has gone before is to be permitted to outshine these events.

The entire new building is now practically ready for the furnishings, and the elegance of its every appointment is apparent to even the casual observer. The "Dor" stair window was yesterday placed in position on the landing of the broad staircase leading to the upper floor, and makes a striking effect.

The massive woodwork in the main hall, the ceiling buff and the walls in sage-green color in which room to taste the grape juice. Two handsome colored-glass doors are ready to be put in place which will cast a soft light down through the hall-ways. The improvements to the building and its furnishings will cost, when completed, about $50,000. Every thing in the interior will be in modern style, to correspond with the woodwork and will include just about everything that luxury suggests.

The main floor, with its inviting and beautiful appearance and surroundings of elegance, will be devoted to the reception room, dining-room and some other rooms which are not yet labeled. In corner, one of these is the kitchen, and probably another is the place for the ice glasses. The upper floor com-

Twenty or more rooms for the accommodation of members who will make their homes at the club, and the basement will be fitted up with bowling alley, gymnasium and other amusement features.

For the opening reception on the evening of July 22 invitations have been sent to all the Republican clubs surrounding towns, and some have already given notice that they have accepted the invitation for an invited guest.

The committee intends, however, that the invitation shall be accepted by the entire membership. A band will be served and the interior will be elaborately decorated in flags, flowers and electrical lights.

The greatest event is to be the banquet on Saturday night, July 23. The details are not yet arranged, but the plan has been fixed at $2.00 per person for each member, with the privilege of one additional for an invited guest.

Some of the most prominent leaders in the state will be present, and there will be a trainload of guests from the San Francisco Union League, and have already chartered a train.

The entire clubhouse will be given to the banquet if necessary, in order to accommodate the thousands of guests, and the real estate affairs

time all a statement of the day will be in this city. The Union League is the first of its kind in the state, and it is a great honor to have it here.
